In 2020, ARPEL will organize the sixth edition of its Oil & Gas Conference, which will be held April 15-17 in Lima, Peru. The Oil and Gas Conference ARPEL 2020 is the main regional forum for the leaders of the energy sector, and will bring together executives and experts of operating and supplying companies in the sector, recognized speakers and distinguished government authorities, who will provide their vision on the present and future of a thriving industry that is key to the growth of the region.

Forum of Opportunities in the Upstream Sector

The “Forum of Opportunities in the Upstream Sector,” a space devoted to the promotion of investment opportunities in E&P in the region, will be held on the first day. This forum is attended by state entities responsible for the regulation, promotion, and bidding and contracts in the oil and gas sector.

Program with keynote addresses, plenary sessions and technical workshops

The Conference ARPEL 2020 will feature a comprehensive agenda covering the following issues:

- Upstream investment opportunities
- International conjuncture, geopolitics and market perspectives
- Expansion of Natural Gas
- Innovation, digitalization and cybersecurity
- Investments and disinvestments in downstream infrastructure in the new energy scenario in the Region
- Energy transitions - Scenarios for the oil and gas industry in the Region
- Climate change and the oil and gas industry: policies, technology and financing
- Corporate sustainability: the importance of good operational and management practices
- Urban mobility and smart cities
Business networking and exchange of the latest developments in operation and management

In addition to gaining a complete picture of the industry at present and of possible future scenarios, this Conference provides an opportunity to interact in one place only with professionals and executives linked to the sector and also to identify business opportunities throughout the value chain.

Who should participate?

- Executives and experts of operating companies and technology, goods and service providers.
- Representatives from governments, financial institutions, international organizations, chamber and national institutes, consulting firms and universities, among others.

Wide media coverage

In each edition, the ARPEL Conference arouses the interest of the leading specialized media, local press and news agencies in the world.
